OLE MISS SOCCER STADIUM

The Ole Miss Soccer Stadium stands as a beacon for success on the Oxford campus. Since the complex was christened on Sept. 28, 1997, in a regionally televised game against Alabama, the Rebels have been victorious in nearly 62 percent of their home matches, posting an impressive 172-74-33 mark through 2024.

In the five years prior to the COVID-19 pandemic, just over 43,000 fans crossed through the gates at the complex, averaging 816 fans per game in that stretch. In those five years, Ole Miss ranked no lower than 43rd in total attendance, and reached as high as No. 24 in 2015 (11,087).

In terms of facility improvement, plenty of upgrades have taken place to keep the venue near the top of the league. Prior to 2011, a new playing surface was installed, before improvements were again made prior to the 2013 season giving the Rebels one of the top fields in the SEC.

Helping to provide the perfect environment for collegiate soccer, upgrades were again made prior to the 2016 season to the graphics and video elements of the stadium. In a campus-wide project improvement from Daktronics, the venue received a high-definition board, which stands as one of the largest in the SEC.

With seating for over 1,500 spectators, the stadium is located directly behind the Gillom Sports Center, which underwent major renovations in 2017, including a new locker room and coaches offices.

The 2002 season was a momentous one for Ole Miss Soccer Stadium, as it was not only the site of the SEC Tournament, but also underwent one of its first facelifts. A two-story brick building was constructed, supplying a three-room media area on the top floor and new concessions and restrooms on the bottom, facing the outside of the stadium.

The stadium went through renovations again over the 2025 summer, including a new playing surface, a new video board/sound system, a berm seating around behind the north goal and premium seating on the west side of the field.

MOLLY ROUSE

RUN DOWN

Molly Rouse is in her third season as the Head Coach of the Ole Miss Women's Soccer program. Rouse was named the third head coach in program history on May 18, 2023.

In year two at the helm Rouse helped guide a roster full of veteran and young talent. The Rebels were led in goals by freshman Kayla Keefer with five. Keefer took home SEC Freshman of the Week honors after a hat trick debut on Aug. 15, 2024, against Southern to open the season. She became the first Rebel since 2020 to receive Freshman of the Week honors.

Shu Ohba ranked third in the Southeastern Conference with 79 saves and second in saves per game. Ole Miss allowed one or fewer goals in eight of the 19 matches in 2024. The senior from Fujisawa, Japan competed with Team Japan in the 2024 Paris Olympics and finished her Ole Miss career 10th all-time in career saves, 10th in career goals against average, and seventh in career shutouts.

Eleven different players scored a goal for the Rebels in 2024 including senior Kelly Brady who ranked second on the team with four goals and 10 points. Rouse was integral in the addition of Brady in 2023 who ended her Rebel career with 12 goals and 26 points. Brady signed with Athlone Town AFC on Jan. 3, 2025, and is set to compete for the League of Ireland's oldest Football Club in March of 2025.

In her first year at the helm of the Rebels, Rouse guided the program to a 7-7-3 record and an impressive 6-1-2 record at home. Rouse won her opening game at Ole Miss against Southern Miss, a 2-0, shutout victory on Aug. 17, 2023. She won the first SEC match of her career against LSU as well, a 1-0 win on Sept. 15, 2023. Rouse led the team to wins over Missouri and Kentucky later in the season and draws against Auburn and at No. 15 South Carolina.

Shu Ohba led the Southeastern Conference in saves and saves per game in 2023. She earned SEC Defensive Player of the Week honors twice and was named to the 2023 All-SEC Second Team and the 2023 United Soccer Coaches All-Southeast Region Team.

Rouse came to Oxford from St. George, Utah where she was the head coach of the Utah Tech women's soccer program for three seasons. Rouse was brought on to guide the program as Utah Tech made the transition from Division II to Division I, becoming the first head coach at the Division I level in program history.

During her three seasons at the helm of the program, Rouse won 19 games and picked up the program's first Division I win on March 11, 2021 as they beat Chicago State 4-0. In 2022, Rouse led the Trailblazers to their first winning Division I season in program history, finishing 10-6-2. Utah Tech went 6-3-2 in WAC play and earned a No. 4 seed in the WAC Soccer Tournament, their highest seed since joining the conference.

The 2022 edition of the Trailblazers led the Western Athletic Conference in Goals Against Average and Goals Allowed. They allowed just 14 goals in 18 games for a 0.78 GAA. Utah Tech also posted nine shutouts in 18 games, including a stretch of seven-straight clean sheets. Rouse developed four All-WAC players in three seasons, including three in 2022: forward Karli Nyland and defenders Gracie Knutzen and Ella Carmody.

Before beginning her career as a head coach, Rouse served two seasons as an assistant coach at her alma mater, the University of Minnesota. In 2018, she was a part of a Golden Gophers team that won the Big Ten Tournament title over No. 15 Penn State and beat Auburn in the first round of the NCAA Tournament for their first postseason road win in program history.

Rouse also made stops as an assistant coach at four other Division I programs, including Iowa, Nebraska-Omaha, Buffalo, and Alabama State.

Rouse played her collegiate soccer at Minnesota for four seasons from 2007-10. She appeared in 88 career matches for the Golden Gophers and scored 18 total goals with 17 assists, including an assist in a school record tying five-straight matches in 2008. In 2008, Rouse started all 26 games for a Minnesota team that would earn a share of the Big Ten Regular Season Title. That team would win a program-record 22 games and make it to the third round of the NCAA Tournament for the first time in school history.

After finishing her career as a Golden Gopher, Rouse played professional soccer for the Minnesota Kings and Vancouver Whitecaps in the Women's Premier Soccer League.

Rouse graduated with a Bachelor's Degree in Early Childhood Education from Minnesota in 2011. She currently holds a U.S. Soccer Federation (USSF) National "A-Senior" Coaching License.

ROB THOMPSON

RUN DOWN

Rob Thompson is in his 16th season as a member of the Ole Miss soccer staff and his 11th as Associate Head Coach since being promoted in 2015. Thompson primarily works with the goalkeepers and is one of the main recruiters in his role on the staff.

During the 2024 season and the second with keeper Shu Ohba, Thompson guided the Fujisawa, Japan product to the third most saves in the SEC with 79 and second best in saves per match. Ohba tallied nine games with six or more stops including five consecutive matches. She recorded a season-high nine saves in the match at LSU on Sept. 22, 2024, and followed that with eight saves in the SEC home opener against Texas on Sept. 26, 2024. Across her 30 career matches in an Ole Miss uniform, Ohba made 146 saves, good for the 10th most all-time by a Rebel keeper. Her 1.63 goals against average ranks 10th best all-time by an Ole Miss goalie and she tallied the ninth most shutouts by a Rebel keeper with seven. Ohba also competed with Team Japan in the 2024 Paris Olympics.

In 2023 Thompson brought in goalkeeper Shu Ohba, the reigning SoCon Player of the Year, to take over between the posts for the Rebels. In the 15 games that Ohba played, the Rebels recorded seven shutouts. She made 67 saves throughout the season, good for an average of 4.47 per match. Ohba earned SEC Defensive Player of the Week honors twice and was selected to both the All-SEC Second Team and the United Soccer Coaches All-Southeast Region Team. Under Thompson's guidance, Ohba led the SEC in saves and saves per match in her first season for the Rebels. Ohba also competed with Team Japan in the 2023 Asian Games, the 2024 SheBelieves Cup, and the 2024 Olympics.

Thompson was pivotal in the development of Ashley Orkus into arguably the top keeper in the nation since her arrival at Ole Miss in 2018. Orkus was the first-ever three-time SEC Goalkeeper of the Year, one of two players in program history to garner United Soccer Coaches All-America status multiple times and in 2021 became Ole Miss' first-ever First Team All-American. Orkus was also named a semifinalist for the 2021 MAC Hermann Trophy, the only keeper to make the cut for college soccer's top individual honor and just the second Rebel ever to garner a semifinalist nod. When Orkus wrapped up her career in 2022, she has become Ole Miss' all-time leader in both career saves and shutouts and is the only Rebel goalkeeper to ever cross the 300 saves mark.

The 2018 season marked the end of Rebel keeper Marnie Merritt's lauded career between the posts. Under Thompson's direction, Merritt became a four-year starter at Ole Miss, finishing her career ranked second in school history in saves (277), shutouts (21) and wins (40). Additionally, the Hough High School product's 1.31 career goals against average is the sixth-lowest at Ole Miss.

Merritt collected four clean sheets during her senior campaign before having her final season cut short due to injury. True freshman Morgan McAslan was thrust into the spotlight for the final eight matches of the season and with the help of Thompson's guidance performed admirably. The freshman picked up the win in five of her eight appearances, recording three-straight shutouts to close out the regular season.

The Ole Miss defense proved to by stingy in 2017, especially during the non-conference schedule. The Rebels completed the fifth undefeated non-league slate in program history, allowing a single goal on the way to a 7-0-1 record. In total, the Rebels surrendered 23 goals, including eight shutouts on the season. Following the regular season, Ole Miss earned its third bid to the NCAA Championships in the last five seasons.

Thompson helped guide the Rebels to their first-ever NCAA Sweet 16 appearance in program history in 2015. Under the assistance of Thompson, Ole Miss surged to a national ranking of No. 12 midway through the year, its highest rank in school history. The Rebels also closed the book on the season as the No. 16 team in the nation in the postseason poll, the best finish in the history of the program.

Thompson's teachings were apparent in 2015 as the Rebels pitched nine shutouts, including two versus top-10 teams in No. 10 Auburn and No. 10 South Carolina. Merritt, who made her collegiate debut in the 2015 campaign, made it a good one under Thompson's direction. Thompson's instructions paid off as Merritt totaled seven individual shutouts, fourth-most in a single season in school history.

The 2013 season saw the Rebel defense help Ole Miss to a record-setting 16 wins that included 10 shutout victories behind the play of junior goalkeeper Kelly McCormick. The keeper became the winningest goalkeeper in program history, 34 victories for her career under the tutelage of Thompson. In the 2012 season, McCormick helped the Rebels post eight shutout victories, including a stretch of four-consecutive shutouts as Ole Miss rolled to an 8-0 start to set the best start to a season in program history. In that stretch of shutouts, the McCormick and the Rebels played 483 minutes of shutout soccer, setting a new school record.
